

Cooper & Wilcock

Vertical Transportation Consultants

Bio for Olaf Kramer Dipl. Ing (FH) in Mechanical Engineering NC

Qualifications

- Dipl. Ing (FH) in Mechanical Engineering, specialized in Vertical Transportation
- Specialist in Elevator/Escalator Products, Codes and Traffic Analysis
- Specialist in Elevator Installation methods for High Rise developments
- Trained PMP (Project Management Professional) from PMI

Experience

- Olaf Kramer has over 20 years' experience in the elevator industry with extensive experience in Europe and GCC markets covering all aspects of elevators/escalators installation, maintenance, sales and project management.
- He started his career in sales engineering, worked in R&D and factory to build up strong knowledge of products, manufacturing process, quality systems and code compliance.
- 10 years has been spent in the Middle East, covering several positions including Technical Manager, Major Projects Director and Managing Director for a multinational elevator company.
- Mr. Kramer had been involved in the design and delivery of major multi-storey elevator and escalator systems for an extensive number of projects in the Middle East. He is well known in the Middle East and provided primary support to Consultants, Architects, and building Owners for the planning of efficient and practical Vertical Transportation Systems.
- In January 2016 Olaf Kramer joined Cooper & Wilcock FZ LLC as a Partner to provide a reliable, professional consulting service throughout the Middle East.

Selected Projects Experience

Al Mas Tower, Pentominium Tower, U Bora Tower, Etihad Towers, Capital Plaza, Al Bustan Complex, Meydan Grandstand & Hotel, Yas Marina Circuit & Hotels, Conrad Hotel, Princess Nora University, Muscat Airport, King Abdullah Financial District (KAFFD), Vision Tower, Bay Gate Tower, Cayan Tower, Elite Tower, Princess Tower, The Torch, Al Mafraq Hospital and many others.